
Does any1 have any beauty tips for a bride to be?

Posted by sheryl34 - 2009/06/21 11:18

Hi, I am 27 and I am getting married in October. I am eating well with plenty of fresh fruit and veg plus drinking more water and I am exercising regularly but I obviously want to look my absolute best on the day so if you've got any beauty tips for anything to do with hair, skin, body, makeup or anything at all that I could put into practice within the next six months, I'd love to hear about it!

Hello
So, if you're a big fan of Dancing with the Stars, you probably have been seeing Shawn Johnson (the 17 year old Olympic Gold Medalist) tripping the light fantastic.

Honestly though, neither one of us watches DWTS, sooooo.....is she even still on it?

I seriously have no idea.

And...really...when I saw this image of her I could not help but think that it looks nothing like the Shawn Johnson of Olympic lore.

Like she's all grown up now.

Any who...Shawn decided to share some her favorite beauty tips about how she always looks great in the public eye.

And here they are...

For your skin follow the routine cleansing-toning-moisturising. Use a good cleansing milk and mix with some apricot and walnut scrub, massage gently to all exposed parts. Wash off with cold water. Do not use scrub more than twice a week. Use a toner to close pores after cleansing in upward direction. Use a herbal toner. If you have oily skin , u can also use an astringent. Butter and honey forms a natural moisturiser. Use a pack of sandalwood paste, milk, fuller's earth, neem paste, tulsi paste,honey every 15 days to get a soft supple skin. Shampoo ur hair on alternate days with a mild herbal shampoo. Use hot coconut oil massage twice a week. Apply Henna paste soaked in tea liquor to scalp. Wash after 1 hour. Use a pumise stone to remove dead cells of ur body and apply oil + moisturiser on alternate days to ur entire body. U can go in for a steam bath once a month.
